PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Camp Fire Girls--the nation's oldest youth organization for girls seven to eighteen--observes the successful completion of forty-five years service to South Dakota and its 47 neighbors the week of March 13-20; and

WHEREAS, this agency, with some 392,000 members, and boasting more than four million 'alumnae' is to be congratulated for its excellent program of health and character-building activities; and

WHEREAS, for more than four decades, Camp Fire Girls organization has made available to girls or every race, religion and economic status leisure-time activities which emphasize the importance of the individual in relation to herself, her community and the world in which she lives; and

WHEREAS, this state--and the whole family of states--benefits from Camp Fire's well-rounded program, by receiving each year, valuable community service from members acting as hospital aides, Election Day baby-sitters and civic project volunteers--and it welcomes into adult leadership young women well versed in the duties and responsibilities of citizenship through Camp Fire training:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim the week of March 13-20, 1955, as in South Dakota --- a time for the people of this state to join hands with the youth organization in marking another important milestone in its impressive history.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 9th day of March, 1955.
